Get Ready for Summer Reading

The 2015 Summer Reading Club Kicks off on Monday, June 8th. The theme this year is “Every Hero Has a Story.” Kids can learn about and explore the stories behind their favorite comics and movies, real life superheroes, and find out how they can become superheroes themselves. For the reading club, children ages 3 to 5 can participate in the Read to Me program where they can get a prize for completing a reading log with their parents or a caregiver.

School-age participants will keep track of how much they read using a reading log, and get a prize for each section they complete. They can also enter to win one of three grand prizes: $50 gift card for Barnes and Noble, $50 in books of their choice, or $50 in ride tickets from Knoebels.

Registration for the reading club begins June 8th. Registration forms will be available at the Librarian’s desk in the Children’s Room.

A featured program over the summer is Family Night on Thursdays @ 6pm. These programs are geared for school-age children, but younger siblings are welcome. Sessions include special guest presenters, parties, and special activities. Pick up a flyer at the library for all the information about the programs and their days and times. You can also click on the What’s Happening in the Kids Room link on the library’s web site for a list of all programming.

And to get ready for the summer reading club, visit the Library for Free Comic Book Day on May 2! Thanks to Comics and Paperbacks Plus, Palmyra, there will be a variety of comic books for kids of all ages to choose from. This is a national event to encourage everyone to learn more about comic books that feature a wide range of story lines that capture the imagination. So join us and find a new hero to read!
